// REENERGIZE EXXON

Vote to Protect the Value of Your Investment in ExxonMobil

See Why The 3 Largest Pension Funds in the US Are Supporting Our Campaign to Reenergize ExxonMobil

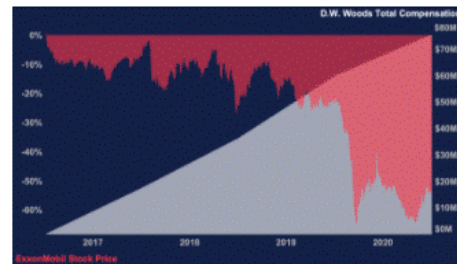

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

We're Engine No.1. We're fellow investors in ExxonMobil and, like you, we want to help ExxonMobil grow profitably. Our campaign to create more value for ExxonMobil shareholders and better ensure the safety of your dividend has won the backing of the three largest pension funds in the United States, who have a combined stake in ExxonMobil of approximately $1 billion.

Our team has decades of investment experience in the energy industry. And over the past four years (2017-2020), we've noticed a few things:

- The S&P 500 was up 68%, while Exxon's share price declined by 54%
- CEO Darren Woods earned $75 million in total compensation over that time period
- Exxon leadership destroyed an astonishing $200 billion in market value

The company is iconic – that's why we invested – but the current trend doesn't look good. The company has the highest debt level in its history, S&P has downgraded their debt twice since 2016, and they've been kicked out of the Dow Jones Industrial Average.

Until we launched our campaign, the board had ZERO independent directors with energy experience. That doesn't make any sense to us – Microsoft's board of directors has technology experience and UnitedHealthcare's board has healthcare experience; why wouldn't Exxon want a board of directors with energy experience?

All of this is why we launched our Reenergize Exxon campaign, to elect four independent directors to the Board. And when we say independent, we mean it – they don't work for us now and they won't when they're elected. Instead, they'll work for each and every shareholder, to create long-term value and hold leadership accountable.

Every one of the four nominees we're recommending has decades of experience and a track record of creating billions of dollars of shareholder value in the energy industry – just what Exxon's current Board is missing. You can learn more about them here.

And, we're not the only ones who think there's a problem with the current Exxon board – Reuters Breakingviews wrote on March 22:

"[ExxonMobil's] board should have been a better overseer of management, capital allocation and strategy. Yet even with new appointments, it has limited experience in energy. That needs to change... The slate of four put up by activist Engine No. 1 could help."

We're asking you to vote the WHITE card to bring accountability and transparency to the board, to reverse these trends, to protect the dividend, and to act in your best interests – not management's.

Will you join us and commit to voting the WHITE card?

Sincerely,

Engine No. 1
