The global leader in carbon capture and storage (CCS)

ExxonMobil believes that achieving meaningful reductions in greenhouse gas emissions will require a wide range of solutions, and that CCS is one of the most vital technologies needed to mitigate the impacts of climate change.

According to the International Energy Agency (IEA) and Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), CCS is one of the critical technologies required to achieve net-zero emissions and the climate goals outlined in the Paris Agreement.

With more than 30 years of experience developing and deploying CCS technologies, ExxonMobil is well positioned as the global leader in CCS.

Dedicated to deploying CCS at scale

Progressing broad portfolio of commercial opportunities, while continuing to develop new technology solutions

ADVANCING PLANS

>20 new CCS opportunities around the world to enable large-scale emission reductions, including options for producing low carbon hydrogen

PLANNING TO INVEST

>$3B on lower emission energy solutions through 2025

What is CCS

CCS is the process of capturing CO<sub>2</sub> that would otherwise be released into the atmosphere and injecting it into deep geologic formations for safe, secure and permanent storage.

It is one of the only technologies that could enable some industry sectors to decarbonize, including the refining, chemicals, cement and steel sectors.
