SECTION 2 – RESOURCE EXTRACTION ISSUER DISCLOSURE

Item 2.01 Resource Extraction Issuer Disclosure and Report

This consolidated report (“Report”) is prepared and furnished in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 under Rule 13q-1 transposed into law effective March 16, 2021, regarding Disclosure of Payments by Resource Extraction Issuers (the “Regulations”) on behalf of Exxon Mobil Corporation, its subsidiaries and entities required to be included in this Report (hereinafter referred to as “ExxonMobil”).

This Report includes cash and in-kind payments made to Foreign Governments or the U.S. Federal Government with respect to commercial development of oil, natural gas, or minerals involving exploration, extraction, processing, and export of oil, natural gas, or minerals, or the acquisition of a license for any such activity. Any extractive payments in the Upstream, Energy Products, Chemical Products, and Specialty Products business segments have been captured. As required by the Regulations, payments included in this Report are on a cash (rather than accrual) basis, based on the year in which the payment was made.

The payments reported follow Form SD’s instructions but do not equal our ultimate liabilities (e.g., production entitlements, taxes, and royalties) for the reporting year. Notably, the Report only covers extractive payments and, in most cases, fails to include payments made to governments related to our other business segments. Additionally, the Report is limited to payments we control and excludes ExxonMobil’s share of significant payments made to governments by other parties (e.g., equity companies). More specifically, the tax payments reported in this document do not equal our ultimate tax liability. They are the payments we made to the governments in the reporting year reduced by the amount of any refunds and do not include amounts for the purchase of tax credits. For these reasons, we believe the total global taxes and duties expense listed in the companies’ publicly available financial statements provide a more accurate reflection of the full scope of contributions made to governments.

Please note: this Report only covers the payments required to be disclosed under the Regulations. This does not reflect the full scope of ExxonMobil’s global economic contributions from the capital we invest annually (>$25 billion in 2024) or the taxes, fees, and duties paid to local, state, and federal governments, which is far greater than what is reflected in this report:

- In 2024, as reflected in the companies’ financial statements, ExxonMobil earnings totaled nearly $35 billion.
- Global tax and duties expense in 2024 was $44 billion.
 - This includes more than $13 billion in income taxes.
 - Based on 2024 Form 10-K’s, ExxonMobil was the 5th highest cash tax payor of worldwide income taxes in the Fortune 25 U.S. companies. Our 2024 worldwide effective income tax rate was 33% (excluding acquired entities).
- In the United States specifically, ExxonMobil’s total expense for taxes and duties in 2024 was more than $9 billion.
 - $9 billion is more than six times higher than the U.S. taxes shown in this Report.

The narrow focus of this report makes it challenging to draw meaningful comparisons of payments across countries. Payments to different governments vary due to factors like resource type, project start-up timing, whether payments are controlled by ExxonMobil or third parties, and whether third parties or partners are considered government entities. Payments can also vary dramatically depending on the age of the field and the related pace and amount of resource depletion. Fiscal terms are always subject to negotiation and are reflective of the relative risk and upfront investment required.

The payment disclosure required by Form SD is included as an exhibit to this Form. Payments are reported in U.S. Dollars and are shown in this Report rounded to the nearest $0.1 million. Due to rounding, numbers presented may not add up precisely to the totals indicated. If payments are made in currencies other than U.S. Dollars, those payments are translated using the exchange rate at the time of payment.

ExxonMobil is leveraging the delayed reporting provision of Item 2.01 pertaining to payments related to exploratory activities. These payments will be disclosed in the Form SD submission for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025.

ExxonMobil is relying on the alternative reporting provision of Item 2.01. The alternative reports are included in the exhibit to this Form and are available for downloading as follows:

Supplemental Information:

We believe the total U.S. taxes and duties expense listed in companies' publicly available financial statements are a better reflection of the contributions made to the U.S. governments. For 2024, the total U.S. taxes and duties expense for all ExxonMobil entities included in this Report exceeded $9 billion and represents approximately 68% of U.S. income before income taxes.*

Additionally, the tax payment number reported in the table does not reflect a reliable estimate for ExxonMobil's ultimate tax liability for the reporting year. The tax payment reported follows Form SD's instructions and is net of all refunds (whether related to the reporting year or another year) and excludes both payments for the purchase of tax credits and payments related to the reporting year but made in prior or subsequent years. Additionally, it may include payments made in the reporting year but related to prior or subsequent years.

The table above only includes certain ExxonMobil payments to the U.S. Federal Government related to extractive activities as required by the Regulations. It is important to note that the Regulations do not require the inclusion of payments to U.S. State and Local entities which are significant. The U.S. reported payments on a comparable basis to the information reported for foreign countries is shown in Figure 1 below and reflects the over $3 billion in U.S. State and Local payments omitted by the Regulations, bringing the total payments in the U.S. to an estimated $5.8 billion.

ExxonMobil Luxembourg et Cie SCA

Introduction

This consolidated report is prepared and published in accordance with the European Union directive 2013/34/EU and transposed into the Luxembourg law of December 18, 2015 regarding payments to governments for companies operating in the extractive industries, which modifies inter alia the law of August 10, 1915 on commercial companies, as amended (the “Law”) on behalf of ExxonMobil Luxembourg et Cie SCA (“ELEC”) and its subsidiaries.

Under the Law, ELEC is required to prepare a consolidated report on payments made to governments in relation to its extractive activities including subsidiaries included in its consolidated financial statements.

ELEC is an intermediate holding company. The ultimate parent is Exxon Mobil Corporation in Spring, Texas in the USA. ELEC and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) are involved in exploration, production, transportation and sale of crude oil and natural gas and the manufacture, transportation and sale of petroleum products and petrochemicals in addition to developing low carbon solutions.

Definitions relating to reporting on payments to governments

Activities within the scope of the report

This report includes all payments made to governments with respect to the group activities involving exploration, prospection, discovery, development, and extraction of minerals, oil, natural gas deposits or other materials, within the economic activities listed in Section B, Divisions 05 to 08 of Annex I to Regulation (EC) No 1893/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006 establishing the statistical classification of economic activities NACE Revision 2 (cfr. Art. 1760-1 point 1° of the Law).

Government

A government is defined as national, regional or local authority of a member state or third party country. It includes a department, agency or undertaking controlled by that authority as defined in articles 1711-1 to 1711-3 of the Law (cfr. Art. 1760-1 point 3° of the Law).

Payments

Payments whether in money or in kind for the activities mentioned above of the following type:

- Production entitlements;
- Taxes levied on the income, production or profits of companies, excluding taxes levied on consumption such as value added taxes, personal income taxes or sales taxes;
- Royalties;
- Dividends;
- Signature, discovery and production bonuses;
- License fees, rental fees, entry fees and other considerations for licenses and/or concessions;
- Payments for infrastructure improvements (cfr. Art. 1760-1 point 5° of the Law).

Project

Project is defined as: the operation activities that are governed by a single contract, license, lease, concession or similar legal agreements and form the basis for payment liabilities with a government. Nonetheless, if multiple such agreements are substantially interconnected, this shall be considered a single project (cfr. Art. 1760-1 point 4° of the Law).

Reporting principles

In accordance with the Law, ELEC has applied the following principles:

1. The consolidated report mentions:
 - a. Total amount of payments made to each government;
 - b. Total amount per type of payment made to each government;
 - c. Where those payments have been attributed to a specific project, the total amount per type of payment made for each such project and the total amount of payments for each such project.
2. Any payment, whether made as a single payment or as a series of related payments is not taken into account if it is below EUR 100 000 within a financial year (cfr. Art. 1760-3 (1) of the Law).
3. Payments made by the undertaking in respect of obligations imposed at entity level are disclosed at entity level rather than at project level if it is not possible to disaggregate the payment per project (cfr. Art. 1760-3 (2) last sub-paragraph of the Law).
4. Payments in kind are reported in value and, where applicable, in volume. Supporting notes provide an explanation on how their value has been determined (cfr. Art. 1760-3 (3) of the Law).
5. Disclosure of the payments referred to in this Article reflect the substance, rather than the form, of the payment or activity concerned. Payments and activities are not artificially split or aggregated to avoid the application of the Law (cfr. Art. 1760-3 (4) of the Law).

ExxonMobil Luxembourg et Cie SCA

Payments per country, per government and, where applicable, per project

The tables hereinafter show the payments made to governments by the Group on a government and, where applicable, on a project basis for each type of payment during the year ended December 31, 2024.
